RE: General Motors Corporation

Please be advised that General Motors Corporation, a current self-insured company, filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 protection of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code on June 1, 2009.

General Motors Corporation has been self-insured since April 1, 1952.

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court has granted the company's motion authorizing the debtors to pay certain employee compensation and benefits. The order further authorizes employees to proceed with their workers' compensation claims in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum under the Workers' Compensation Program.

Questions regarding workers' compensation claims may be directed to:
